Perfectly Positioned and Distinctively Deco

Tightly held by the one family for over 60 years, this three bedroom red clinker home combines the timeless character of Art Deco with a location that is second to none. Set opposite Penders Grove Primary, sandwiched between Hayes and Penders Parks, a short walk to buses, trams and the bustling eateries and bars of brilliant High Street, this home delivers big on lifestyle. Not to be outdone by its setting, this meticulously maintained home boasts a wealth of living space with its lounge featuring a tapestry brick fireplace flanked by built-in cabinetry, and huge kitchen with meals where a well-appointed solid timber kitchen, complete with Miele dishwasher and extensive breakfast bar forms the heart of this home. Overlooking a low-maintenance rear that offers an alfresco dining space and vegetable plots, easy living is the order of the day. Add to this bedrooms serviced by a neat bathroom, separate laundry, ducted heating, split system air-conditioner and double tandem garage with workshop, while striking ceilings and cornices, picture rails and original lighting make this meticulously maintained home, one not to miss.
